NOTESAbout Document Requests

1. If a lawyer acting on behalf of a party has not filed a document on the court file, or is unsure whether they are officially on the court record as acting for a party to the file, then the lawyer must file a Notice of Address for Service with this request document.
2. A person acting as agent for a party to collect and receive court documents must have that party complete and sign Part E of this form OR file with this request a signed written letter from the party authorising the collection of documents by the requester on their behalf.
3. A person requiring documents from a court file for a legal purpose must briefly state their relationship to the parties and the legal purpose for which the document is required, and if possible supply copies of relevant documents.

E.g. I am the (state relationship) of (name of party) and require the Divorce Certificate for the Administration of a Will.

4. If you have current or pending court proceedings and your address has changed, you will need to lodge a separate Form 8 Notice of Address for Service form which can be downloaded from the court website.
